Organised by

The charming Finch Bay is named after the famous Darwin's Finches which are abundant in the outskirts of this lovely hotel. Situated just steps from the beach on a private seaside location between mangroves, you will be able to enjoy the privacy, natural surroundings and superb service on offer. Located on Santa Cruz Island at Punta Estrada, across the bay from Puerto Ayora town; it enjoys a quiet position, with no cars allowed - only pedestrians and bikes.

All the rooms and suites at Finch Bay have private facilities, air conditioning and unlimited water supply, as the hotel has its own desalinisation plant. The entire infrastructure as well as the activities are totally oriented to a concept of true ecotourism in a pristine natural environment.

Day 4

After breakfast you will be driven to Baltra airport for the flight to Guayaquil, Ecuador's largest city and main port for a chance to do some shopping and sight seeing.

Guayaquil was an important port and ship-building centre for the Spanish, but it was plagued by pirate attacks and several devastating fires, including one in 1896 – known as the 'Great Fire' – in which huge parts of the city were simply burnt to the ground. Guayaquil achieved its independence from the Spaniards on October 9th, 1820 and was an independent province until Simón Bolívar annexed it as part of Gran Columbia in 1822. When Bolívar's experiment and dream failed in 1830, Guayaquil became part of the newly formed republic of Ecuador. You will have a room at your disposal for the day, reserved at the Hilton Colon Guayaquil which dominates the city's new booming commercial and financial zone in Ecuador.

After the day spent in Guayaquil you will be driven back to the airport for your return flight.
